The Vintage

The 2023 Sonoma Coast wine growing season featured optimal conditions with mild spring temperatures, well-distributed rainfall, and consistent summer warmth, fostering even ripening. Cool nights enhanced vibrant acidity and complex flavors. A prolonged cool period from August to mid-September led to a delayed harvest, starting 4-6 weeks later than usual. The resulting grapes showcased a harmonious balance of fruit, acidity, and nuanced characteristics.

About Red Car

Guided by winemaker Tanner Scheer and viticulturist Greg Adams, Red Car farms five ridge-top vineyards throughout the West Sonoma Coast and Fort Ross – Seaview AVAs. Influenced by the high elevation and maritime climate of our coastal surroundings, Red Car's wines display perfumed aromatics, bright fruit, crisp texture, and invigorating acidity.
